

Thai Buffet Night- Thursday 10th December

Ye Olde Cross Ryton Village

Sawasdee Kha and Welcome to a Yim Siam Thai Buffet Night in association with Ye Olde Cross Ryton Village On Thursday 10th December 2009 we are bringing you an introduction to the culinary delights of Thailand.

Come along and enjoy with us a selection of those amazing dishes, ranging from the Mild coconut based Yellow Curry, a firm favourite with Western Tourists, up to the daringly spicy Pad Grapow, the most popular daily meal throughout the country, from the farmers of North Easter region Isaan to the elite of Bangkok.

We are sure there will be a dish to suit all tastes, and of course all washed down with the gold star award winning Thai Singha Lager.

We are offering this chance to sample the whole range of dishes in an

ALL YOU CAN EAT THAI BUFFET

ONLY £10 per person.

You will be served at your table with a selection of typical starters, then your free to sample as many dishes as you wish, then if you still have room enjoy an exotic Thai sweet.
